

Forcing Sinclair broadcasting stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary is a travesty of public interest laws, a reflection for the need to change licensing. Should they be "forced" to show Up River?